MIAMI, FL - 7:30 p.m. (EDT) EVERY Thursday, July 8 through August 12, locals and the world are invited to the Community Arts Program (CAP) 2021 VIRTUAL Summer Concert Series! Take a seat at CommunityArtsProgram.org CAPcast and Community Arts Program Facebook, Instagram TV, or YouTube - to enjoy a summer of concerts!

From opening night with the Troy Roberts Trio in a program titled All That Jazz! to Something Old, Something New, Something Borrowed, Something Blue with GRAMMY® Award winners John Daversa and Tal Cohen – six VIRTUAL concerts feature outstanding artists. The Community Arts Program (CAP) Summer Concert Series has entertained more than 72,000 people since it began in 1985. The Series has grown into a time-honored tradition, and a Community Arts Program that also provides music education to children and youth in its award-winning CAP Conservatory for the Arts and CAP Miami Jazz Institute.

"We're very excited to, as always, present a line-up of incredible artists," says Mark Hart, Executive and Artistic Director of the Community Arts Program. "Though again this year we'll miss welcoming concert-goers within the beauty of CAP's home at the historic Coral Gables Congregational Church, we're thrilled to virtually reach an even broader audience across all of Florida and the world!"
