KATE KORTUM

"Interpretative skills make her familiar music sound fresh." - Jazz Journal UK

Thursday, August 20, 2026 at 7:30 p.m.

Coral Gables Congregational United Church of Christ

Seamlessly blending bebop and Broadway, Kate Kortum has turned the heads of millions as one of the most compelling new artists in jazz today.

A Juilliard graduate and winner of the 2025 Sarah Vaughan International Jazz Vocal Competition, Kate has become a familiar face on the most iconic jazz stages. These include Birdland, Blue Note, Mezzrow, Dizzy's Club, SXSW Festival, and Jazz at Lincoln Center.

Kate has toured internationally, and has collaborated with modern jazz leaders. Among these are Bryan Carter, Peter Bernstein, and Wynton Marsalis and the world-renowned Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra.

Kate's debut album, Good Woman, reimagines jazz standards originally written by men, and reclaims them through bold arrangements and a distinctly female perspective. This recording and her follow-up LP, Wild Woman, have been met with acclaim and over 5.1 million streams.

In addition to her solo career, Kate is a member of The Sunhouse Singers – a New York-based vocal trio, with vocalists who also include June Cavlan and Joie Bianco. The trio has been featured in projects by Bryan Carter, Charlie Rosen, Christian Wiggs, and Emmet Cohen on his award-winning program, Live from Emmet's Place.

Kate's Community Arts Program (CAP) Summer Concert Series debut is with piano accompaniment. This brings a splendid, intimate evening of wonderfully-captivating music!
